- For research purposes approved by the College

Activities associated with routine disclosure of information or records, to comply with legislative requirements or facilitate College operations, are undertaken by all College divisions in accordance with their operational practices.

Student personal information may be disclosed without consent

The following information may be disclosed except in situations where the student has requested that the information not be disclosed:

- Confirmation that a student is or is not registered at the College
- Full legal name of all graduates, name of the certificate or diploma obtained and for which program and the date of graduation
- Names of recipients of awards and scholarships and the award or scholarship received

Disclosure of personal information to Third Parties

Certain personal information collected by the College is disclosed to specific third parties in order to comply with provincial and federal law and to facilitate routine College operations. Examples of these include but are not limited to the following:

- Students' Association of Olds College
- Alumni Association of Olds College
- Alberta Government Ministries
- Canadian Federal Government

Personal information of a specific individual may also be disclosed to third parties, upon the written consent of the individual to whom the information relates.

Disclosure of student personal information to parents

A student's personal information, including personal information of a student who is a minor, is only disclosed to parents or guardians upon the written consent of the student.

Disclosure of personal information to employees

Personal information collected by the College is disclosed to employees, only to the extent necessary, when it is required by that employee to do their job.

Employee access to their own personal information

Activities to facilitate employee access to their personal information are coordinated by the Human Resources department.

- Employees have the right to request access to their own personal information and records subject to the discretionary and mandatory exceptions in the FOIP Act.

- Employees who wish to review their own personal information must contact the Human Resources department and schedule an appointment.
- Viewing files will be conducted in a private office with at least one authorized College employee present. A note regarding the access event will be made in the employee file.

Student access to their own personal information

Activities to facilitate student access to their personal information are coordinated by the Office of the Registrar.

- Students have the right to request access to their own personal information and records subject to the limited and specific exceptions in the FOIP Act.
- Students who wish to review their own personal information must submit a written request for such access at least 48 hours prior to the time when they intend to view their file.
- Students will be required to produce appropriate photo identification (driver's license, passport or student ID card), confirming their identity prior to being permitted to view their personal information.
- Viewing files will be conducted in a private office with at least one authorized College employee present. A note regarding the access event will be made in the student record.

Costs associated with providing employees and students with copies of their personal information may be assessed but are limited to the costs specified in section 12 of the FOIP Regulation.

Access to personal information for institutional research purposes

Access to personal information for institutional research purposes may be approved by the College subject to specific conditions which include student anonymity.

Formal Request for Information

Access to information other than that specified in active dissemination and routine disclosure must be requested in writing. Individuals are required to complete and submit a FOIP Request to Access Information Form to the FOIP Coordinator for the college. The College will process formal requests for information in accordance with the provisions of the FOIP Act.

Anyone receiving a formal request from an individual regarding access to records is to immediately direct that request to the FOIP Coordinator.

The FOIP Coordinator:

- Shall assist the applicant in defining the information being requested and the time frame for the responsive records.

- Will assist the applicant by clarifying the request, coordinating the search for responsive records, and if appropriate, providing a fee estimate to the applicant.
- Will review, evaluate, and redact responsive records in accordance with sections 16-29 and will apply exceptions in a specific and limited manner.

The delegated authorities will review and authorize the release of the records after the FOIP Coordinator has reviewed and redacted the records accordingly.
