Objective:	Reservists are valued members of the Canadian Armed Forces (CAF) and bring tremendous value to their civilian employers. Olds College of Agriculture & Technology (the "College") recognizes that value, and supports military leave both for training purposes and for operational leave in the event of a mission or emergency.
Policy:	The College recognizes students and employees who are members of the Canadian Armed Forces and support their service through the provision of a leave of absence without pay for required training, and participation in operations and activities. Employees may request a leave of absence without pay to participate in activities that qualify for Military (Reservist) Leave as defined in the Employment Standards Code of Alberta (Division 7.1). Students may request a leave from their academic studies to support their participation in training, missions or activities aligned with the entitlements of reservist leave.
Definitions:	Reservist: A member of the Reserve Force, which consists of officers and non-commissioned members enrolled in Military service.
